Inference

Inference is when you read between the lines and look for clues in a story.

What is the purpose of this section?

Interviewers ask questions for different reasons.

Why do you think the interviewer asked the following questions?

Match each question to its purpose.

question	purpose
1st question: Why do you do it?	to encourage other people to go caving
2nd question: How did you get started ...?	to provide general background information
4th question: What's the most dangerous ...?	to build up the excitement of the interview
5th question: And the best moment?	to find out what makes Lisa want to explore caves

Prediction

A Prediction is a statement that someone makes about what they think is going to happen.

Do you think questions.

Do you think that Martine will change her behaviour on future graffiti rides?

Tick one.

- yes
- no
- maybe

Explain your choice fully, using evidence from the text.

Based on what you have read, what does the last paragraph suggest might happen to the explorers next?

Use evidence from this paragraph to support your prediction.

Retrieval

Retrieval is when you have to pick out information from a text in order to answer questions about it.

Tick one box in each row to show whether each statement is true or false.

Are the following statements true or false?

Draw a circle around your answers.

The astronauts experience less gravity on the Moon than in space.	True / False
The first pictures of the Moon were upside down.	True / False
The Lunar Module has round windows.	True / False
Armstrong wasn't meant to come out until midnight.	True / False

Using information from the text, put a tick in the correct box to show whether each statement is true or false.

	True	False
Matthew Webb's first attempt to swim the English Channel was not successful.
The first successful swim of the English Channel was in 1872.
J.B. Thompson and Matthew Webb swam the English Channel in 1875.
Matthew Webb took twenty hours to swim the English Channel.

Summarising

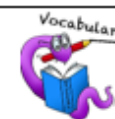

Summarising means recalling the main points or ideas.

Number the following sentences from 1-5 to show the order in which they happen in the poem.

The first one has been done for you.

- The poet arrives in France.
- The poet lives with his grannie. 1
- The poet is injured.
- The poet's grannie visits him.
- The poet writes to his grannie.

Vocabulary

Reading Vocabulary refers to the words we need to know to understand what we read.

What does the word feasting suggest about the ladybirds? Look at page 8.

Find and copy two different words that show Michael enjoyed the feeling of the cool water and suggest another word with a similar meaning which could have been used.
